

The law that created Wisconsin's No-Call List is one of the best laws I know of. It has made evenings at home much more pleasant. Please do not weaken it. In fact, I would rather see it become more strict to prohibit non-profits and campaign committees from being able to call me at home.